CASE NUMBER: 1:22-cr-31

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

5 years

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Kenneth Hawkins
CASE NUMBER: 1:22-cr-31STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

CASE NUMBER: 1:22-cr-31

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- (1) Shall not possess, or view sexually explicit material as defined by 18 U.S.C. §§ 2256(2)(A) and (B).
- (2) Shall participate in a sex offender treatment program, to include a sex offender risk assessment, psychosexual evaluation and/or other evaluation as needed.
- (3) Shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for alcohol and controlled substance abuse, as directed by the U.S. Probation Office, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation office. Defendant will make a co-payment for treatment services not to exceed $25 per month, which is determined by his ability to pay.
- (4) Shall also be subject to periodic polygraph examinations at the discretion and direction of the probation officer and at his expense. Defendant shall follow the rules and regulations of the sex offender treatment program as implemented by the probation office. Defendant shall sign all necessary authorizations forms to release confidential information so that treatment providers, probation officers, polygraph examiners and others (as necessary) are allowed to communicate openly about the defendant and his relapse prevention plan.
- (5) Shall have his residence and employment be pre-approved by the probation officer and in compliance with state and local law.
- (6) Shall install software to monitor computer activities on any computer Defendant is authorized to use at his own expense. The software may record any and all activity on Defendant's computer, including the capturing of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversation. This software will be checked on a random basis. Defendant has no expectations of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer if monitoring software is installed and understands and agrees that information gathered by said software may be used against Defendant in subsequent court actions regarding Defendant's computer use and conditions of supervision. Defendant must also warn others of the existence of the software program. Defendant is prohibited from attempting to remove, tamper with, or alter/circumvent in any way the software program. Furthermore, Defendant must comply with the rules set forth in the computer monitoring participation agreement.
- (7) Shall submit and/or surrender any media device, to which he has access and/or control, to a search based on reasonable suspicion or contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. A media device is defined as, but not limited to, any device which is capable of accessing the Internet, storing images, text, or other forms of electronic communication.
- (8) Must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if he has used a prohibited substance. Defendant must not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.
